OTHER RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant for Biao Xiang (Oxford, Max Planck) 2018

- Studied Beijing’s eviction programs towards floating population in history and at present
- Collected government documents and official reports to reveal the logic behind policy design

Research Assistant for Yinxian Zhang (CUNY) and Xi Song (UPenn) 2018

- Studied media coverage and public perceptions of inequality in China
- Coded media reports and cleaned data for sentiment analysis using machine learning

Research Assistant for Jacob Thomas (Princeton) 2016,2018

- Studied how states and family deter people from emigrating
- Conducted 103 in-depth interviews with informants interested in but deciding not migrating

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of California, Irvine

Teaching assistant for SOC138/ECON148: Business Decisions Winter 2019,2021
